VBS Report 2008 Judson Association

“Aloha!” from Outrigger Island. This year in Vacation Bible School, our Wave Riders learned about God’s Unshakeable Truth! Not only is God real, he sent his son Jesus Christ as the only way to be saved, and gave us His Word, the Bible, so we could believe and let our actions match our passion for Him.

The work for Vacation Bible School 2008 began early. On February 23, our joint Judson-Truett VBS leadership team attended State VBS training at Thompson Station Baptist Church in Thompson Station, TN. A great time was had by all, and our team passed on the training they received at our joint VBS clinic with Truett Association on April 26. God’s blessing was evident as it proved to be a grand success with over 50 people in attendance.

The churches of Judson Association had a great year for Vacation Bible School in 2008. We had 11 churches report a total enrollment of 1072 in VBS. Even more exciting, a total of 110 Sunday School prospects were discovered, and 37 made the decision to accept Christ as their Savior.

While VBS 2008 may be over, there are still those who still need to hear the Unshakeable Truth of God’s Love. As we are looking forward to VBS 2009, ask God that you can reach even more through His Word.

Lifeway’s theme for VBS 2009 is Boomerang Express. We will be winding our way across Australia, learning about the vastness of God’s love and discovering that no matter where we go or what we do in life, it all comes back to Jesus. As a preview for next year, here are the Scripture and Motto for Boomerang Express:

Scripture: I John 4:9

“God’s love was revealed among us in this way: God sent His One and Only Son into the world so that we might live through Him.” (HCSB)

“In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.” (KJV)

Motto: Follow! Worship! Live through Him!

May Christ be with you all,

Nathan Davis
Judson Association VBS Director

Men's Ministry Report
Judson Baptist Association
Annual Meeting
October 18, 2008

1. In January, Bro. David Acres, State Director of Disaster Relief for the TBC, led a Disaster Relief training event at Burns Baptist. There were 15 new volunteers added to our unit.
2. Once again, Parker's Creek hosted a chili supper and singing in February, with the proceeds going to our associational disaster relief unit. We raised $1,930.91. Thanks to Kim Cunningham and the WMU for putting the supper together and to the Gospel Echoes and The Leavells for lifting up the Lord in song. And thanks to each and everyone who participated.
3. In February & March, our disaster relief unit was called upon to serve following the devastating tornadoes that wreaked havoc in our area. Our chainsaw unit provided relief and shared the gospel with people in Centerville, Brushy, Fairview, and Pine-wood.
4. The 4th Annual Father-Child Fishing Day was held on June 7th at Lake Woodhaven in Montgomery Bell State Park.
5. A large group of men gathered on September 13th to raise the tent for our annual Crusade. Breakfast was provided by the WMU. Thanks to all who participated, and also to those who helped with parking during the event.

WMU Report

2008 Was a productive year.

We had 45 people to attend the Day camp this year.

The Soup and Chili Supper to help support the Disaster Relief was a huge success as well.

After the tornado's swept through several counties this spring our WMU Leaders in different churches began gathering items that victims were in need of at a moments notice.

In addition Liberty Baptist has started having a WMU meeting at their church, if interested please contact Joyce Bullington for details.

WMU doesn't have to be any "ONE" thing other than supporting the different kinds of Missions that passes through our lives every day. Overseas, or our own backyard.

Spreading the word of God, and Salvation through the blood of Jesus Christ is the ONE and True objective of WMU.

Thank you for your support this year.

Kim Cunningham

Historical Events

Liberty

Pad-a-Pew reupholstered all of our church pews. They were bought 40 years ago when Rev. John Tidwell was our pastor. Every one was happy to get them because they replaced our home made seats that were made out of boards that had spaces between the slats.

Maple Grove

Elected Bro. Cecil Gilliland as pastor February 3, 2008.

Memorial Service was held on May 25, 2008 honoring and remembering Veterans associated with our church. Special presentation was made to Birdie Bishop, mother of Adam Bishop, U.S. Marine killed in Iraq.

On July 13, 2008 a Baptismal Service was held in Maple Grove Creek (as we usually do) In thirty years of ministry this was Bro. Gilliland's first experience of baptizing in a creek.

Mt. Zion

Back Yard Bible Club held at apartment complex.

Several nursing home visits.

Assisted several families in need.

Parkers Creek

February 2008 - Opened and Dedicated our Family Life Center

March - 2008 - Broke all time attendance in worship having 461 people
