Constitution

ARTICLE I - NAME

This Association shall be called the Truett Association of Missionary Baptist.

ARTICLE II - PURPOSE

1. To foster fellowship among the churches cooperating with the Association.
2. To assist the churches in strengthening their programs of enlistment, evangelism, teaching, and training.
3. To encourage churches in the establishment of missions and new churches.
4. To promote these programs of the Tennessee Baptist Convention and the Southern Baptist Convention as it may deem proper.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP

The Membership of this Association shall be composed of messengers elected by the churches with the Truett Association on the following basis.

1. Each church, regardless of size, may have three (3) messengers.
2. Each church may have one (1) additional messenger for each fifty (50) members or fraction thereof over 100 members.
3. No church may have over ten (10) messengers.
4. All pastors of the churches, officers of the Association and members of the standing committees shall be members of this Association. Churches may be admitted to membership in this Association by a two-thirds majority vote after a petitionary letter has been received by the Credentials Committee. and upon said committee's recommendation.

ARTICLE IV - OFFICERS

The officers of this Association shall be Moderator, Assistant Moderator, Clerk and Treasurer and any other officers that the Association may deem necessary in order to perform the work which needs to be done. The officers shall be elected on the first day of the Association's Annual Meeting, and their tour of duty will begin at the dose of the Annual Session. The Moderator may not be eligible for election if he has served two or any part of two terms until at least a year has passed.

ARTICLE V - AUTHORITY

The Association claims no jurisdiction over the churches, and shall exercise no authority over them; however, it shall be the duty of the Association to offer fraternal council to any church in need of the same, upon their request. The Association will reserve the right to refuse to recognize messengers from any church which persists in disorderly practices.

ARTICLE VI - EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

1. This Association shall have an Executive Board composed of the regular officers of the Association, and other elected officers, Pastors and Chairman of the Standing Committees, along with two elected laymen from each church.
2. This committee shall meet on the fourth Monday night, in October, January, April, July and August. (July shall be the planning meeting). November, January, March, May and June be given to promoting Sunday School, Discipleship Training, Brotherhood, W.M.U. and Stewardship. Only urgent business will be introduced at an emphasis meeting.

ARTICLE VII - PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE

1. The By-Laws may be added or the Constitution altered by a two-thirds majority of those present at any regular meeting of the Association. Said recommendations shall be presented to the Executive Committee at the meeting prior to the annual meeting.
2. Robert's Rule of Order shall be the governing procedure.

BY-LAWS

- I. One-half of all messengers attending the Association meeting shall constitute a quorum.
- II. Brethren not messengers of the Association and visiting Brethren invited to sit with the Association may be privileged to discussion but not the right to vote.
- III. The Nominating Committee shall make recommendations for all officers and committee members of Standing Committee.
- IV. The Moderator shall appoint any committees not otherwise provided for.
- V. The Moderator shall have the same privilege, as other members, provided he vacate the chair. While occupying the chair, he may vote only in case of a tie. These rules shall apply to the Assistant Moderator while he is occupying the chair.
- VI. The Association year closes August 31st. Church letters shall be in hand of Clerk by September 15th.

VII. The Annual Association shall meet Thursday evening after the last Sunday in September.

VI 11. The Executive Board shall be the governing body of the Association between Annual Meetings and shall meet on the fourth Monday night of October, January, April and August with the Moderator given the authority to call special meetings of the Executive Board when needed, upon 7 days advance notice.

IX. An Associational Calendar of events for the coming year shall be prepared and printed in minutes each year.

X. All resolutions and reports shall be presented in writing, signed by person offering such report and shall become a part of the permanent record.

XI. The Clerk and Treasurer shall be paid for services rendered by the amount set by the Budget and Finance Committee.

XII. The following committees compose the standing committees of this Association

1) Promotion - All elected officers compose this committee and the Vice Moderator will serve as Chairman.

2) Missions - This committee shall work with the Director of Missions in various projects in the Association, and shall be composed of five members.

3) Budget and Finance - This committee will have two Pastors, Associational Treasurer and two other laymen.

4) Program - This committee shall have three members, including Associational Clerk.

5) Nominating - This committee shall nominate all officers, standing committees and fill any vacancies, which may occur. This committee shall be composed of five members.

6) Credentials and Doctrine - This committee shall examine Credentials of new Churches and make the necessary recommendation after examination, and also counsel with any church when requested.

Each committee shall make a report of the work accomplished and of the plans for the future to the Executive Committee at the four (4) Executive Board Committee meetings.

Report of Committees to be made to the Executive Committee at the meeting prior to the Annual Associational Meeting.

XIII. The Moderator shall be ex officio members of all committees, standing or special.

XIV. The By-Laws may be amended or changed at any time by a majority vote of those present - Executive Committee or Annual Association.

WORKING AGREEMENT BETWEEN TRUETT ASSOCIATION OF MISSIONARY BAPTIST AND ASSOCIATION DIRECTOR OF MISSIONS

I. POSITION TITLE: Association Director of Missions will be the official title, hereinafter called DOM of the Truett Association of Missionary Baptist, hereinafter called the Association.

II. BASIC FUNCTION: Provide leadership in the work of the Association in the interest of strengthening the cooperative Baptist witness throughout the area.

III. QUALIFICATIONS:

1) Personal dedication and consistent Christian living.

2) A sense of call to mission service.

3) Adequate educational preparation, preferably college and seminary training or the equivalent in experience and other training.

4) Thorough knowledge of the work of a Southern Baptist Church.

5) Knowledge of Association work from personal experience as a DOM or as a participating pastor or other Church leader.

6) Reasonable knowledge of Southern Baptist denominational life and willingness to continue to learn.

7) Ability to relate effectively to rural and small town Pastors and Churches.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES:

4) Work with Association leaders and committees in planning and conducting activities designed to strengthen the churches according to their needs, and to maintain effective mission ministries in the area.

5) Lead in planning and coordination of a calendar of Association activities to be presented each year to the annual meeting business session and printed in the minutes of the annual meeting as already provided for the By-Law number (9) of the By-Laws Association.

6) Lead in training Association organizational leaders and committees.

7) Publish monthly a newsletter of the Association. The newsletter should contain news of interest, highlights of Executive Board action, treasurer's report, upcoming dates of Association activities, and other information and inspiration at the discretion of the DOM.

8) Provide counsel and help as reasonably requested by Pastors and Churches.

- 9) Assist in stewardship development in order to undergird the work of the Association and encourage growth in the support of mission causes through the Cooperative Program.
- 10) Assist in maintaining a Biblical evangelism concern in the Association.
- 11) Serve as denomination contact person in the Association relaying quickly news of interest to churches by use of monthly newsletter, reports to the Executive Board, or other communication as considered appropriate by the DOM.
- 12) A report of DOM activities and concerns will be made at each Executive Board meeting and an annual report will be presented by the DOM to the Association Clerk for inclusion in the "Book of Reports" for the annual meeting. The DOM will report regularly to the Missions Department of the TBC.
- 13) The DOM will demonstrate true commitment to the purpose of Association as prescribed in Article II, "Purpose", of the Constitution of the Association.

V. CALL:

- 1) The call and employment of the DOM be by approval of the Association Executive Board. The Association Executive Board. The Association Missions Committee will serve as search committee when a vacancy of the position occurs and will recommend a nominee for the position to the Executive board.
- 2) The call of the DOM of the Association is a indefinite one. The position of DOM himself, or the Executive Board. The DOM will give the Executive Board thirty (30) days notice if resignation is desired; and the Executive Board will give the DOM sixty (60) days notice if the DOM's resignation is called for.
- 3) The amount of salary and allowances will be worked out and presented for approval annually. It is suggested that the Missions committee and the Budget and Finance committee work together when negotiating a pay package with the DOM.
- 4) Four (4) weeks per year will be allowed, off the field, for revivals, world mission conferences and other such activities. Consideration of the Association calendar is suggested when such activities are scheduled by the DOM.
- 5) The DOM will be allowed two weeks paid vacation each year, with three weeks after five years of service. Vacation time cannot accumulate one year to the next, and payment will not be made for time not taken. Consideration of Association activities is suggested in the scheduling of vacation time by the DOM.
- 6) One day of sick leave with pay shall accumulate for each month of service to a total of ninety (90) days. Sick leave is intended for use by the DOM in case of his illness or that of his immediate family that requires his attention or assistance, including funerals. Sick leave will be forfeited at the time of the DOM's resignation, or dismissal. The Association will not make payment for accumulates sick leave.
- 7) The DOM shall be entitles to receive and keep honorariums from revivals and from supply preaching when the church normally would provide and honorarium.
- 8) The work schedule may vary from week to week as need arises in the Association and Churches.
- 9) Due to the size of the Association and the rural setting of most of our Churches this agreement does not propose to regulate how many times the DOM can supply the pulpit, occasionally or successively in each Church, however, it is not intended that the DOM will serve any Church as interim Pastor, but rather assist as requested by the Church in securing pulpit supply so that DOM time and attention can be equitably shared with other churches and Association responsibilities. It is suggested that the DOM compile and maintain a current list of licensed and ordained ministers, and lay speaker in the Association that are available for supply work.
- 10) The employment of the DOM shall be considered full time.
- 11) The Association treasurer will be the payroll officer and the DOM will report to the treasurer when vacation time and sick leave is used, so a record of leave may be maintained.

VI. SUPERVISION:

- 1) The DOM will be basically "self supervised".
- 2) The Missions committee will serve as an advisory committee to the DOM in all matters pertaining to terms of employment and this agreement.
- 3) The Association Executive Board will direct the Missions committee and the DOM, and the Association will be the final authority pertaining to all matters of the agreement

VII. MISCELLANEOUS:

- 1) All other working agreements which have been made between this Association and other DOM's are null and void.
- 2) This agreement shall be recorded annually in the Association minutes and may be amended as necessary by the Executive Board or in the annual meetings. Two months notice should be given before amendments are made. The DOM will be informed in writing of any proposed amendments two months before action is taken.
